The Two Seeds Upon Earth

Read: Matthew 23:23-39.

23 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgement, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

24 Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.

25 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.

26 Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.

27 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of uncleanness.

28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

29 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous,

30 and say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prohets.

32 Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers.

33 Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

34 Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city:

35 that upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zechari'ah son of Berechi'ah, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.

36 Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

37 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!

38 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.

39 For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

It is very important to bear in mind that Jesus never tried to hurt or run someone down, and therefore a child of God should never run someone else down either. Thus, when Jesus called the Jews and Pharisees with whom He spoke "serpents", "generation of vipers", it was not intended to hurt or run them down - He merely spoke the truth! Jesus called them serpents, vipers because they were a generation that originated from the devil! Here Jesus holds this generation, whom He calls serpents, vipers, responsible for the deaths of all the prophets, Matthew 23:35: "that upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zechari'ah son of Berechi'ah, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar." It would have been very unfair of the Lord Jesus to hold the people of that generation responsible for the death of Abel, who had been slain by Cain about 4000 years previously, if they were not in fact the descendants of Cain.

Therefore, the trail that runs from the beginning, of those that killed the prophets; of those that eventually also killed the Lord Jesus; and of those that killed all the disciples after the Lord Jesus, right through until today; is the same trail of one specific family. They all descend from the seed that the Lord Jesus referred to as "serpents", "generation of vipers". It is a generation that will never repent because they do not have God's seed in them. But they do have the devil's seed in them. This is very important! When the Lord Jesus says in Matthew 23:31, "Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets", the word "children" does not mean spiritual children. Also not figurative children, but literal children. They are the descendants of those that killed the prophets.

Let us turn to Matthew 12:34, where the Lord Jesus again speaks to them: “O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.” The generation of vipers is therefore a certain generation on earth. The Lord again addresses them as such in Genesis 3:15, “and I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.” Here the Lord speaks to the serpent. Who was this “serpent”? It was not a serpent and Eve certainly did not eat an “apple”. Nowhere in God’s Word is this to be found, yet how often are we not taught this in churches. This “serpent” was not a serpent but the devil himself. In the original language the word “nachash” is used to describe the devil as a deceiver, an enchanter!

In Revelation 20:1-2, the Bible clearly states who the “serpent” is: “And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years,” Being the last Book of the Bible, the Book of Revelation is also a summary of the whole Bible. As such it also summarizes figures of speech, characters and other things that we read about in the Bible. As is the case with any other book, everything unfolds in the last chapter. If not, that book cannot be understood. No author writes such a book, least of all God Himself Who wrote the Bible. The character of Genesis 3:15, this “serpent”, is also clarified in Revelation 12:9, “And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.” Turn to Matthew 23:36, “Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.” This generation is the same “serpent”, “generation of vipers” already referred to? It is the generation which opposes God and His plan on earth. They are responsible for all the blood that has been shed upon earth, from Abel to the last prophet, and still today also for the blood of every martyr.

Let us now consider Matthew 13:24-30.

24 Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:

25 but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

In the original Greek we have, “while a certain man slept, a certain enemy came who sowed tares.”

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in the field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servant said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?
29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn."

In Matthew 13:36-43, Jesus gave a very important elucidation of this parable to His disciples, which He did not want to give to other people.

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.
37 He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man;

38 the field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one;

Both groups are people - one group of the Kingdom and the other the Wicked.
Can the devil repent? NEVER!
Can his children repent? NEVER!
This is what we have on earth today.

39 the enemy that soweth them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

When Jesus put forth the parable, he said in verse 28: "...An enemy hath done this..." But here in the elucidation of verse 39, He says: "the devil has done this!" In other words, the devil transformed himself into human shape. He adopted the form of a human. This is of the utmost importance! All the preachers say that we are in the end of the world. Are we then not in the time of the harvest? Should we not understand these things? But our people do not understand it because it is never explained to them!

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity;

42 and shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

43 Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear?

Just as the time of harvest is the end of the world, so the time of sowing is the beginning of the world. The time of sowing is the time when God created Adam and Eve and when the Fall came about. Therefore we must investigate what happened there. As we have seen in Matthew 13:25, those tares were sown among the wheat while a certain man slept. Let us now turn to:

Genesis 3:1-15.

1 Now the serpent was more subtile than any beast of the field which the lord God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden:

3 but of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.

4 And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die:

5 for God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.

6 And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat.

7 And the eyes of them both were opened, and they saw that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons.

8 And they heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day: and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God amongst the trees of the garden.

9 And the LORD God called unto Adam, and said unto him, Where art thou?

10 And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.

11 And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat?

12 And the man said, The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

13 And the LORD God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.

14 And the LORD God said unto the serpent, Because though hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life:

15 and I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shall bruise his heel.

We see in verse 13: “The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.” This word “beguiled” is “nasha” in the original Hebrew. According to Strong’s Analytical Concordance it means:-“to lead astray - that is mentally to delude, or morally to seduce, to beguile, to deceive, to greatly and utterly lead astray, mislead.” In other words, if you say that a man has beguiled a woman or vice versa, then you know what it means - “seduced”. Thus, Eve said: “the devil defiled me, seduced me - he had intercourse with me.”

This is one of the most difficult things for people to comprehend, but it is the most important. That which happened in the beginning of the sowing season, when the seed was planted, determines what will happen in the harvest time at the end. We that are in the harvest time, in the time of the reapers and the angels, must know what happened when the seed was sown on earth. There are so many speculations about this tree of Genesis 3:3. One thing is for sure: it was not an apple tree, because the Bible does not say it was. But what is a fact, is that Adam and Eve were not allowed to eat of that tree. This means that if they were to eat of that tree they would directly and literally disobey God. The moment Eve disobeyed God, she became vulnerable first to be deceived and then to be seduced by the devil. What happened to her?

At first the devil was the archangel of God. He himself rebelled against God. Read it for yourselves in Isaiah 14 and Ezekiel 28. He said: “I will be like God, I will ascend upon the holy mountain, I will be like the Most High.” That is why the Lord cast him out of heaven. He then came to crawl about on the ground and hence became the devil, Satan, adversary, deceiver. At the same time he lost the light that he had and became dark and the prince of darkness.

But before God created Adam, He knew that Adam would sin, because the omniscient and almighty God knows from the beginning what the end will be. The Lamb was slain for us from the foundation of the world. In the council-chambers of heaven the Father determined that the Lord Jesus would be born of a woman to atone for the fall of Adam. The devil knew this. He was also there in the council-chambers of heaven, and that is why he came to seduce Eve. By appearing before Eve as a magnificent man, as an angel of light, he was able to beguile her and to corrupt her mind. He said to Eve: “I am God and I will give you that son of whom it was decided in the council-chambers before the foundation of the earth.”

Read: 2 Corinthians 11:3-4, 14.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

It was as an angel of light that Satan approached Eve and seduced and impregnated her. Cain was the devil’s child and was the father of that Satan-seed of which Jesus spoke. “Generation of vipers, you are children of the devil.” His trail is to be found throughout the Bible.

Now turn to:

1 Timothy 2:14-15.

14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

Here it clearly states that: “the woman being deceived was in the transgression.”

15 Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

How often has there been erroneous preaching because of this incorrect translation? The battle against evil spirits in the air and blinding is more actual than we realise. Could people who study Hebrew and Greek at universities not have realised this long ago? Do you realise what is written here? A woman who never marries and who does not give birth to children cannot be saved! This is a deduction that can be made, because it says here that a woman can only be saved by giving birth to children. But this cannot be. In the original it says here, as in the New English Bible: “she shall be saved through the Birth of the Child.” Which child? The Lord Jesus! Just as the first real sin came through the woman, so also the Saviour shall come from the woman! This is what God said! In The Amplified New Testament it reads: “She shall be saved indeed through the child-bearing that is by the birth of the divine Child.”

So the devil comes and tries to outmanoeuvre God as he always tries to do, and he says to Eve: “I am God and I have come to give you that child.” After the devil had intercourse with Eve, she “gave of the tree” also to Adam to eat. Then Adam also had intercourse with Eve. She was thus impregnated by both Satan and Adam. The twins Cain and Abel were born, the first from the seed of Satan and the latter from the seed of Adam, the son of God! Here we have the two seeds. The battle between these two seeds still continues today!

Cain was the first murderer. How could he have come from Adam and Eve, both of whom were created pure by God? Really, their firstborn was a murderer! Where did he get this from? He got it from his father, who himself is a murderer. Jesus said so. Cain slew Abel. The God-seed was now also dead. What was to happen next? We shall get to this later. First turn to:

Genesis 4:1-2.

1 And Adam knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from the LORD.

She thought that Cain was begotten of God, because Satan had pretended to be the LORD, an angel of light.

2 And she again bare his brother Abel. And Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

According to Strong's Analytical Concordance, the word "again" means to add, augment or to continue.

Let us also look at a few translations:
Young's Literal Translation says: "and she added to bear his brother Abel."
The Ferror Fenton Translation says: "she afterwards gave birth to his brother Abel."
The old Dutch Translation says: "en zy voer voort te baren zynen broeder Habel."
Young's Analytical Concordance says: "Abel, apparently the twin brother of Cain."

From all of this we can conclude that they were twins.

In the Apochryphal Book of James called the "Proto Evangelium of James", we read about the history of the birth of our Lord Jesus through Mary on page 381, where Mary was in her sixth month of pregnancy. "Now when she was in her sixth month Joseph returned from his building, entered his house and found her with child, and he smote his face, threw himself down on sack cloth, and wept bitterly, saying: 'With what countenance shall I look toward the Lord, my God? What prayer shall I offer for her, for this maiden? For I received her as a virgin, out of the Temple of the Lord my God, and I have not protected her. Who has deceived me? Who has done this evil in my house, and defiled her, the virgin? Has the story of Adam been repeated in me? (My emphasis). For as Adam was absent in the hour of his prayer, and the serpent came and found Eve alone, and deceived her and defiled her, so also has it happened to me.' And Joseph arose from the sack cloth and called Mary, and said to her: 'You who are cared for by God, why have you done this and forgotten the Lord your God? Why have you humiliated your soul? You who are brought up in the Holy of Holies, and received food from an angel?' But she wept bitterly saying: 'I am pure, and know not a man.' And Joseph said to her: 'Whence is this then in your womb?' And she said: 'as the Lord my God lives, I do not know whence it has come to me.'"

Obviously Joseph knew what had happened to Eve, and he suspected that the devil also did the same to Mary. In the Book of Jude reference is made to the Apochryphal Book of Enoch. Therefore, the Apochryphal Book of Enoch is confirmed in that respect by the Bible. In "The Secrets of Enoch", we read in chapter 31, page 93: "Adam has life on earth, and I created a garden in Eden in the east, that he should observe the Testament and keep the Command. I made the heavens open to him, that he should see the angels singing the song of victory, and the gloomless light. And he was continuously in paradise, and the devil understood that I wanted to create another world, because Adam was lord on the earth to rule and control it.

The devil is the evil spirit of the lower places: as a fugitive he made Sotona from the heavens, as his name was Satanail: thus he became different from the angels, but his nature did not change his intelligence about his understanding of righteous and sinful things. And he understood his condemnation and the sin which he had sinned before; therefore he conceived thought against Adam. In such form he entered and seduced Eve, but did not touch Adam."

We have now seen from both the Bible and the Apochrypha how Cain and Abel were born, and that Cain was a child of the devil and the forefather of the Satan-seed!

Now take note of 1 John 3:12. "Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous." Here John says it himself. For three and a half years the disciples of Jesus sat at His feet. John says in John 21:25, "And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen." In other words, how infinitely more miracles did Jesus perform than those which are described in the Bible? Only enough is written to inform us about it. One can only speculate about how much Jesus discussed with his disciples; how much He taught them; how much He told them! I am convinced in my deepest being, and the Spirit of God bears witness, that He told them all these things. That is why you should read your Bible carefully. We see then that Cain was born of the wicked one (Satan).

Now we come to the meaning of Adam. Adam means "to blush, ruddy". This means that Adam was a white man, and we know Adam was created in the image of God. Therefore, where God appeared in the flesh of the Lord Jesus, He was also white! Jesus was also a white man! He belonged to a white race. He was the son of David. In 1 Samuel 17:42, David is described as a youth, and ruddy, when he opposed Goliath. Have you ever seen a black person who becomes ruddy when he blushes? Blacks cannot blush - Whites blush. We are thus Adamites. This is of the utmost importance! No wonder that the devil wants to exterminate and wipe us out. And how will he do this? Either by annihilation in the eventual war, or by miscegenation which is now taking place. This one can clearly understand when the pattern of the Bible is followed.

We now go to Genesis 5. I have told you that Cain slew Abel. Where will God now find a generation on earth again? How will God's seed now appear on earth again? In this respect Genesis 5:3, is very significant. "And Adam lived a hundred and thirty years, and begat a son in his own likeness," This is very important! "...after his image; and called his name Seth:" There the generation of God again appeared on earth. In the rest of Genesis 5 we see that sons and daughters were born unto Adam.

We now focus on Genesis 6:1-4.

1 And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them,

2 that the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose.

3 And the LORD said, My Spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be a hundred and twenty years.

4 There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children for them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.

A huge library of history is locked up in these four verses of the Bible. In verse 2, we read: "the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair, and they took them wives of all which they chose" - "the sons of God". These sons of God were fallen angels, who followed Satan when he rebelled against God and were cast out of heaven with him. Many people oppose me on this and say that it is impossible for Satan to transform himself into a human. Let me cite just a few instances.

In Genesis 18 and 19 we read about Sodom and Gomorrah. Three men approached Abraham in the plains of Mamre where he was sitting in the tent door in the heat of the day. They told him that they were going to destroy Sodom. One of them was the LORD in human form and Abraham pleaded with Him to spare Sodom. The LORD said that if there were ten righteous men within the city He would spare Sodom and Gomorrah. When those three men came to Abraham, he served them with food which included a calf which he had dressed. The Bible says that he ate with them, which means that those angels performed a human function of eating. Afterwards the two angels went to Sodom (Genesis 19). After they had arrived at Lot's house, the house was surrounded by plenty of Sodomites. How can spirits be sodomised? Those angels were human beings; they had the form of humans. Lot pleaded with the people of the city: "Rather take my two daughters and do with them as you please, but these two men are my guests." We know how mindful people were in those days of hospitality. That is why we are still so hospitable. It is because we are Israel, we have the same nature. This event is one of my proofs that angels adopted human form.

In like manner the angels of Genesis 6:2 also adopted human form and took for themselves wives from the daughters of Adam. This again resulted in a bastard race, just as Cain was a bastard between Satan and the human Eve. The result was giant people of violence and wickedness. The whole earth was filled with violence and God had to send the flood to destroy them. But Noah found grace with God.

Genesis 6:9. "These are the generations of Noah: Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God." Here Noah is referred to as a "just man". The Hebrew Bible says "tamiym", which means "pure-bred or without blemish". Noah was a just man of behaviour and character, but that word describes Noah as pure-bred. In other words, Noah was the only pure Adamite remaining. So close did the devil again come to destroying the God-seed. Only Noah, his wife and their three sons with their wives were saved in the flood.

After the flood they started a new life.

Genesis 9:25-27.

25 And he said, Cursed be Canaan; a servant of servants shall he be unto his brethren.

26 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Shem; and Canaan shall be his servant.

27 God shall enlarge Japheth, and he shall dwell in the tents of Shem; and Canaan shall be his servant.

In Genesis 9:25, Noah says: "Cursed be Canaan..."
In verses 26 and 27, Noah calls God the God of Shem, but not the God of Japheth or of Ham. When we trace the history of the latter, we notice that the descendants of neither of them ever served God. On the contrary, their descendants such as Nimrod and others were in fact those who rebelled against God, and their descendants are still the same today. The descendants of Ham are the black nations in Genesis. See “Zondervan Pictorial Bible Dictionary” and “Smith’s Bible Dictionary”. Gesenius confirms it.

Jeremiah 13:23. “Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil.” Note: “Can the Ethiopian change his skin or the leopard his spots?” “Ethiopian” is another name for “Cush”, and according to Young’s Concordance means “black”. The Greek word is “Aithiops” which means “burnt face”. Thus, Ham was the father of the black nations. Noah, however, was a pure Adamite and therefore pure white. Where then did the dark colour of his son, Ham, come from? From Noah’s wife of course, from where else? And when Ham’s son, Cush, was born, he was pitch-black! Why have we never yet enquired about this? Why was Noah’s grandson black? It came about as a result of the Satan-seed and the fallen angel-seed.

Satan knows that the Messiah is coming, that the King is coming. The King is coming to reign on earth. From the descendants of Shem, God chose a man called Abraham and with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob He established an everlasting covenant. We are their descendants. Thus, God’s government shall be established on earth over the generations of Adam, who shall also govern the world. Satan could not succeed in killing the King, because on the third day He arose. Consequently, his last chance is to prevent God from establishing His Kingdom on earth, which means that he has to destroy God’s people. There are two ways of achieving this: either by brute annihilation, or by miscegenation.

Why is the desire of Whites in South-Africa to remain white considered to be such a great crime? Over the years it has become well-known that Jews desire to remain Jews, and no one blames them for that. When Zulus want to remain Zulus, no one blames them for that. However, the desire of Afrikaners to remain Afrikaners is regarded as such a great sin that sanctions are imposed and other forms of pressure exerted. Why? We have many cassettes and books in which we reveal that it is the same Satan-seed on earth today that deceive, brainwash and manipulate our people in order to gain possession of the world. Be clear-headed, read and believe what Moses and the prophets warned us about.

Amen!

Something about the Author

F.W.C. Neser was trained as a Scientist but is a dedicated Christian since his youth. To him the Bible is the Word of God from Genesis to Revelation.
Very early in his life he came to realise that man himself is the cause of all wars, depressions, famine, droughts, disease, and misery here on earth.
He saw that God had given his absolute Law to Israel, his chosen people and had promised that should they live thereby they would be free of all adversity and would then act as God's exemplary nation on earth.
A matter of importance, which became clear to Neser, was that Israel was neither the Jew nor the Church. It was with gratitude that he eventually discovered the great truth, namely that Israel was in fact the Germanic, Anglo-Saxon and Celtic peoples.
With the imminent Second Coming of Christ, Israel will come to a true regeneration, will be filled with the Holy Spirit and with Jesus the Messiah as their King, they will lead the world back to a state of perfect harmony with God.
